The Widow's Broom

When a witch's worn-out broom is left behind in a lonely widow's garden, it becomes part of the family to the growing distrust of her neighbors. Burning passion is met with clever deception as the haunting story unfolds before your eyes.

October 27, 2017 - The VETS

The Nutcracker

The magic and splendor of the holidays has never been richer than in FBP's timeless production of The Nutcracker. With beautiful sets, elegant choreography, and world class dancers, FBP's Nutcracker is one your students will never forget.

December 14 & 15, 2017 - PPAC

Little Mermaid

You are sure to delight in this classic story featuring the beautiful Little Mermaid, her silly sea friends, the feisty Sea Witch and a handsome Prince. Join in on this splashy adventure as the Little Mermaid becomes part of our world!

April 27, 2018 - The VETS

* Financial assistance available for Title I schools. Transportation assistance available through RI State Council on the Arts "Big Yellow School Bus" Grant.

TESTIMONIALS

"The field trip has been the only exposure most of our students will ever likely have had to the world of ballet and dance. It has been amazing to watch them open up to it and see their worldview expand."

— Mr. Pike, 2nd Grade teacher, Paul Cuffee School

"The dance inspired me. The performance was amazing and so good to watch."

— Jose, 5th Grade, Frank D. Spaziano School

"I look forward to seeing many more performances with my future students."

— Mrs. Hopfenberg, 5th Grade teacher Harry Kizirian School

LECTURE/DEMONSTRATIONS

These in-school programs introduce students to the history, physicality, and artistry of dance, in addition to preparing them to see upcoming Mainstage Performances.

Lecture/Demonstrations are free for schools bringing 100+ students to a Mainstage Performance. (Subject to availability)
